peror of Germany; as he is no longer that, he is no more apostolic than I am; I am as Christian as he is.

30th. (To Joachim Napoleon.) I think you should give nothing to your minister Saliceti, because he has not been in your service long enough. As a rule give nothing to people who have not worked ten years for you. You are right in making the rule that no member of the diplomatic corps can see either you or the Queen. They are spies, and insatiable, and the better you treat them the worse they abuse you. Notwithstanding the Emperor of Russia's practice of inviting Caulaincourt to dinner twice a week, I have never invited Prince Kourakine. Base yourself on the principle that the less the diplomatic corps see you the better.

October 3d. (Note.) The Institute proposes conferring on the Emperor the title of Augustus and of (Icrmanicua. Augustus gained one battle, at Actium. GcrmanicuH won the sympathy of Rome by his misfortunes, but his life shows a decidedly moderate record. There, is nothing to provoke emulation in the memory of the Roman Emperors, The only man, and he was not an Emperor, who was distinguished by his character and by his many illustrious achievements was Ceesar. If the Emperor could wish a new title it would be that of Ceeaar. But so many puny princes have dishonoured that title, ~ if such a thing were possible, — that it no longer evokea the memory of the great Caesar, but that of a mass of German sovereigns, as feeble as they were ignorant, of whom not one has loft a reputation behind him.

The Emperor's title is Emperor of the French.
